

Summer Reading

Summer 2020

Reading

Summer is almost here. Now is the time to start thinking about summer reading, and reading projects. First of all, I hope you read as much as possible.

For some of you, reading 20 titles in the summer will be a snap; for others, getting through six may be all that you can manage, especially if you select long, challenging books. Each of you will have different routines, and each of you will need to find time to read.

Book List

- Keep a list of books you have read. This should be on a Google Doc. You should aim to read 4 or more books. You can include the ones assigned here.
- Toward the end of the summer, you will get an invitation from Grade 5 English to join a classroom. There will be a place to turn in your reading log. If you are unsure about it, you can email me at amhoward@stukeschool.org

Two Books for All Students

- You will be mailed a copy and read Bud, Not Buddy by Christopher Paul Curtis. You can also use the digital copy attached here.
- You will be mailed a copy of The Year of the Dog by Grace Lin. You are to read it.

Project for Each Book

- 1) Create a scrapbook page for Bud Caldwell that he would make for himself at the end of the story. Include images of 5 important items he would include there with a sentence or two about what the item is and why he included it in his scrapbook page. This work can be done on paper or on a Google slide if you know how to create one.
- 2) Create a scrapbook page for Pacy that she would make for herself at the end of the story. Include images of 5 important items she would include there with a sentence or two about what the item is and why she included it in her scrapbook page. This work can be done on paper or on a Google slide if you know how to create one.
